The story

Old Wren has a cold and has lost his chirp. Bramble and Moss go looking for something soft, something warm and something nice.

The lesson

If a friend feels poorly, bring something soft, something warm, and something nice.

🌿 Nature fact: A tiny bird with a big voice

The wren is one of the smallest birds in Britain, but for its size it has one of the loudest songs. You can often hear a wren long before you see one.

💬 Talk about it

- What were the three things Bramble and Moss went looking for?
- What did they find for each one?
- What makes you feel better when you're poorly?
- What could you do for a friend who isn't well?

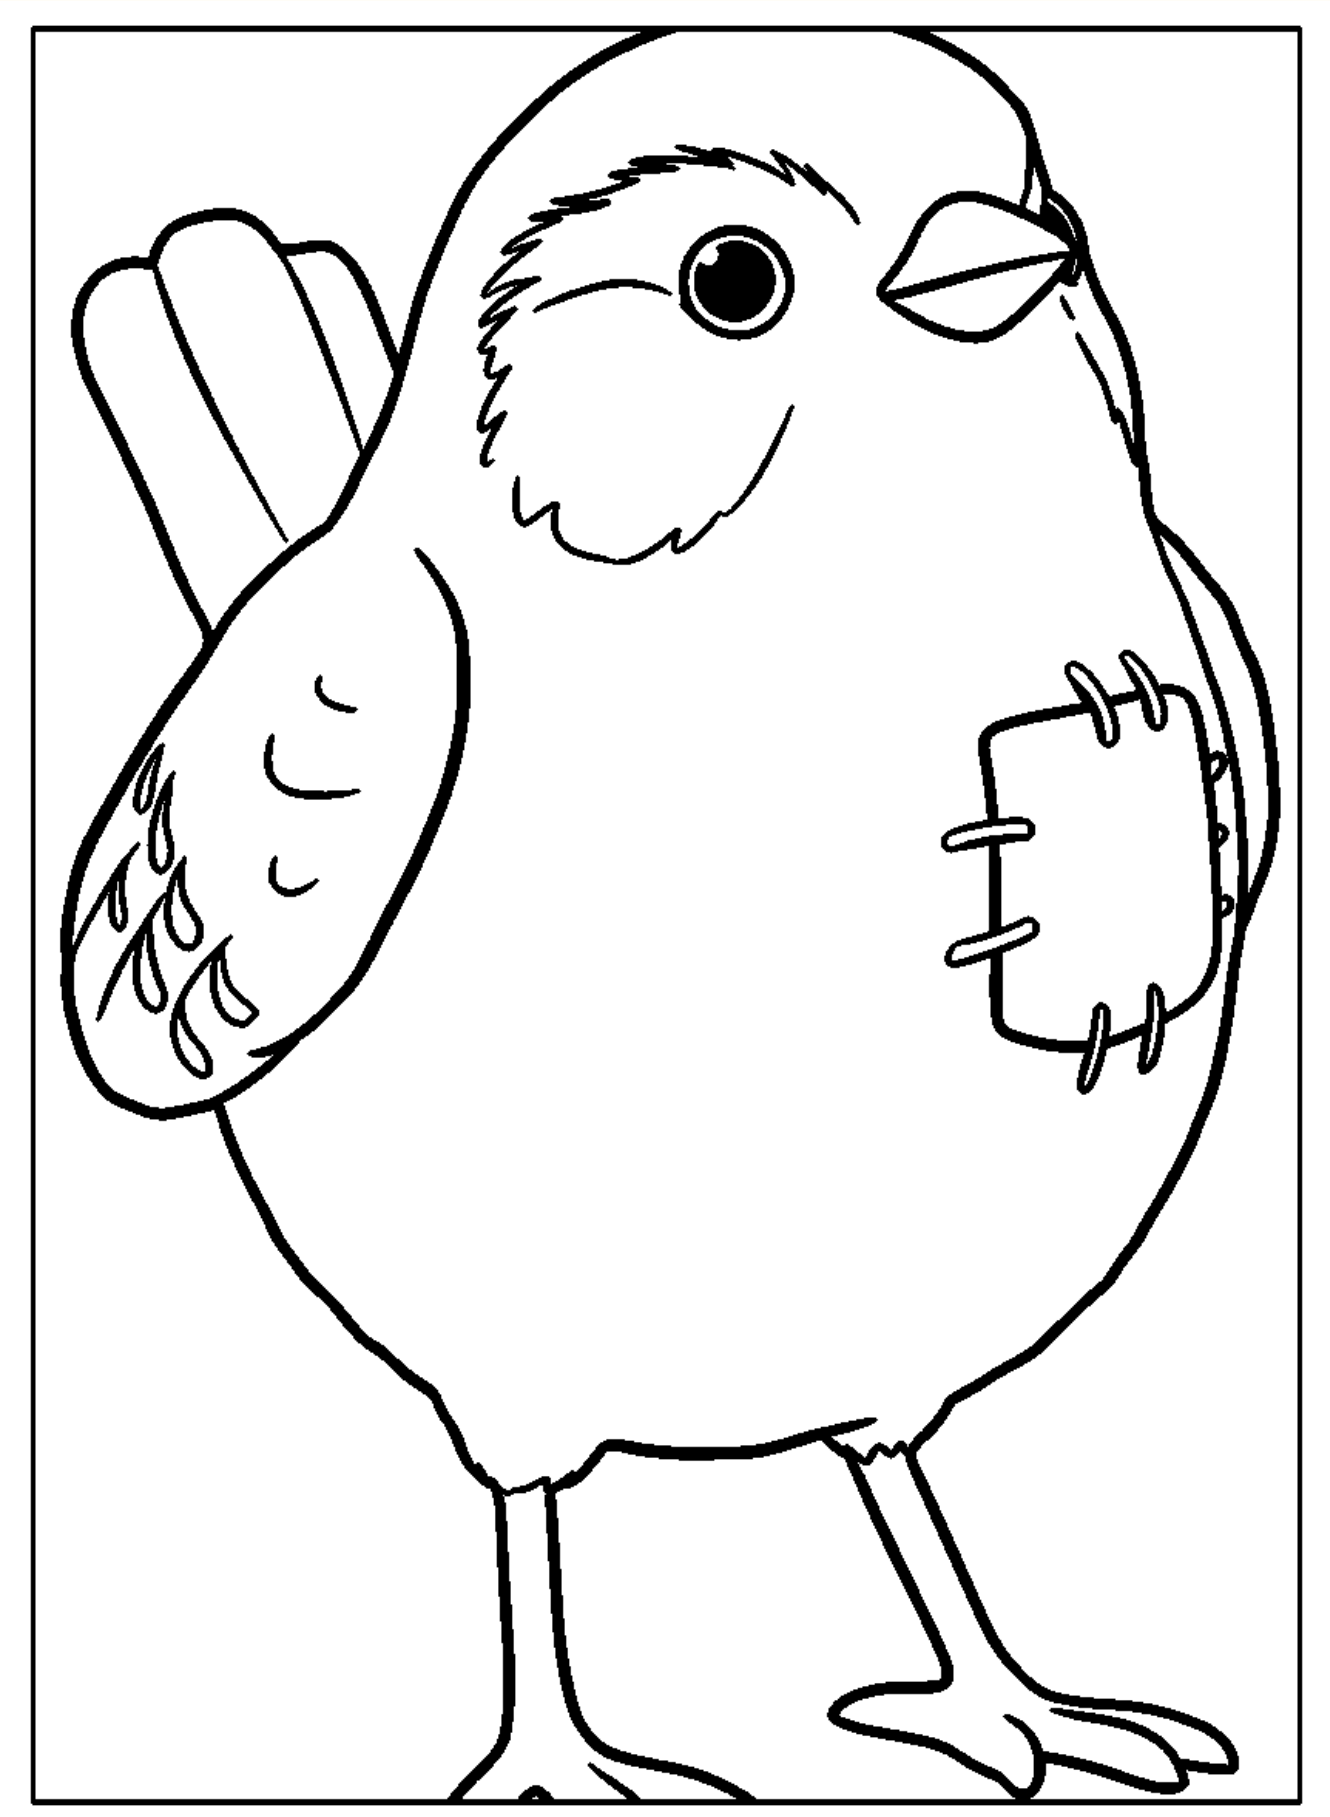

✂️ Try this: A soft, warm, nice card

Make a get-well card with something soft (a puff of cotton wool), something warm (a red or orange leaf) and something nice (a drawing). Give it to someone who needs cheering up.
